The Beloit Historical Society (BHS) Quilt Show celebrates the rich and diverse quilting talent in Beloit, Wisconsin and surrounding regions. The Quilt Show is also a fundraiser to help support BHS operations and educational programming.

BHS is a museum with artifacts on exhibit. All BHS property and exhibitions are expected to be treated with respect. Booth space will be provided with a goal to maximize your products and sales.

Booth spaces will be assigned on a first come basis.

We will provide 1-2 chairs for your booth, but do not have tables available.

There are electrical outlets throughout the building. You may use one power strip per space. You may bring additional lighting. Wifi is available. A guest password will be provided to you during setup.

BHS will include your business name in on-line advertising and in the show program once final payments are received at BHS. You will be contacted with a receipt of payment and instructions for set up.

Show Hours:

Vendor Setup: Friday Nov. 5th 10am – 8 pm pm

Vendor Take down: All booths must remain open for the duration of the show. Take down is after 4:00 pm on Sunday Nov. 7, 2021.

Parking: Vendors can park close to the building for unloading. During the show, please park your cars at the far edges of the parking lot.

Thank you for considering the Beloit Historical Society Quilt Show.
